

Cantaloupe Moon
Psalm 77

Genesis 1:1-2, “God was hovering over the darkness.”

Remembering God in the darkness is active.

Questioning God in the darkness is acceptable.

Will the LORD reject forever?
“Whoever comes to me I will never drive away,” John 6:37b.

Will He never show His favor again?
“Surely, LORD, you bless the righteous; you surround them with your favor as with a shield,” Psalm 5:12.

Has His unfailing love vanished forever?
“Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever,” I Chron 16:34.

Has His promise failed for all time?
“Know therefore that the LORD your God is God; he is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commandments,” Deuteronomy 7:9.

Has God forgotten to be merciful?
“For the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not abandon or destroy you or forget the covenant with your ancestors, which he confirmed to them by oath,” Deuteronomy 4:31.

Has He in anger withheld His compassion?
“As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him,” Psalm 103:13

We don’t know the source of Asaph’s darkness. The source of the darkness is not as important as the response to the darkness.

Seeing God in the darkness is a choice.

God, please remind me of your faithfulness.

Then listen for His answer.